Ron Mach is nation's top seed potato grower

Jan. 14, 2012

Ron Mach of Mach’s Sunny Acres, Antigo, was named the National Potato Council Seed Potato Grower of the Year at the Potato Expo held earlier this month in Orlando, Fla.

The citation was presented by National Potato Council President Justin Dagen, who said the award is in recognition for significant contributions and dedicated service to the potato industry. Dagen described Mach as a man who has simple, traditional values.

“Ron Mach truly loves farming,” Dagen said. “He says it’s a wonderful way of life. He also loves to visit with farmers and share information. And he firmly believes you have to put your time in and work hard if you want to succeed.”
